Spotlight

WELCOMING ALICIA STOCKMAN TO THE ARTS COUNCIL TEAM

There's a new face behind the scenes at the Wasatch County Arts Council! We're thrilled to welcome Alicia Stockman as our new Administrative Assistant. A familiar name in Utah's music and arts communities, Alicia brings creativity, organizational know-how, and a deep passion for the local arts scene to her new role.

Alicia is stepping in for the wonderful Missy Maughan, who recently accepted a new position with the Heber Valley Chamber of Commerce. While Missy will be dearly missed, we're glad she's staying close and continuing to support the vibrant happenings in our community. We extend heartfelt thanks to Missy for keeping the Arts Council running smoothly and with such care.

Alicia joins the team with a strong background as a performing singer-songwriter, event organizer, and arts advocate. She's no stranger to wearing many hats—from hosting house concerts to marketing regional arts events—and she's excited to help the Council continue its mission of supporting artists, organizations, and arts lovers across Wasatch County.

If you're involved in the arts or have ideas for community events, Alicia would love to hear from you! Feel free to reach out to introduce yourself, share upcoming happenings, or just say hello. You can contact her at:
